

WRIT 3001 was accidentally removed from the 2015-2016 catalog. The course had been in previous college catalogs and was not supposed to be removed. The addendum is in red.

WRIT- Writing Program Courses

WRIT 1000 Thinking and Writing (4 sem. hours). This course is designed to provide additional writing experience to students who have already taken Freshman Seminar.

WRIT 1001 Topics in Academic Writing (1 sem. hour). This course is designed to provide additional focus on particular issues related to academic writing.

WRIT 1011 Topics in Academic Reading (1 sem. hour). This course is designed to provide additional focus on particular issues related to academic reading.

WRIT 2001 Introduction to Teaching Writing (1 sem. hour). This course is designed to prepare prospective peer tutors to work in the Writing Center. It will introduce them to the writing process on a theoretical as well as practical level, and to theoretical and practical components of Writing Center work. Specific topics will include the role of the peer tutor, the rhetorical situation, types of academic writing, cultural perspectives, and approaches to talking about writing at various stages of the writing process. Faculty recommendation required.

WRIT 3001 Advanced Teaching Writing (1 sem. hour). This course examines the theoretical and practical components of Writing Center work, paying particular attention to their reflective nature, that is, to the ways in which theories of collaborative learning challenge and extend Writing Center practice and the ways in which Writing Center practice interrogates and shapes Writing Center theory. The course will also further introduce students to aspects of Writing Center administration, particularly the task of marketing the Writing Center on the Millsaps campus. Specific topics will include recent critiques of collaborative learning, approaches to consultation, consultant roles, the role of grammar instruction in the Writing Center, consulting strategies for ESL students, and the use of computers in the Writing Center. Prerequisite: WRIT 2001.
