Biography

Henry Gabriel Hawkins was born on October 5, 1866, in Choctaw County Alabama, to Gabriel Hawkins, M.D., and Martha Elizabeth Lawrence. Under the ministry of his father, Henry was converted and joined the church at the age of five. He was educated in the elementary schools of Alabama and went on to earn an A.B. degree from the University of Alabama in 1884. In 1885, the Hawkins family moved to Enterprise, Clark County, Mississippi, after the death of Gabriel Hawkins. Here Henry served as superintendent of education for two years, felt the call to preach and received his license in 1890 from the Quarterly Conference at Enterprise. He was admitted on trial at the 1890 Annual Conference session at Canton and appointed to Manassas, a circuit in Clark County. He discontinued the following session to study at the Theological School at Vanderbilt University. In 1892 he became an English instructor in the Japanese Government Middle School at Matsuyama, after which he wrote a booklet titled "Twenty Months in Japan." Henry married Miss Mary Aletha Terral on November 27, 1894. They had one child named Henry Terral Hawkins who died at 10 months. His mother died soon after him in February of 1897. In December of 1897, Henry was ordained elder by Bishop Wilson at Jackson. In 1899, he served as pastor at Madison. While serving there he was married to Miss Annie Betts Galloway on October 18, 1899.

Hawkins served as President of three different colleges, Whitworth College (1902-1905, 1925, 1928), Port Gibson Female College (1906-1912) and Memphis Conference Female Institute (1912-1919). He was President of the Mississippi Conference Historical Society and The Hawkins Foundation was established and named in his honor to underwrite Mississippi Methodist history books and projects. After his fourth year as a presiding elder in the Vicksburg district, Hawkins caught malaria. He continued to work until 1936, when he moved back to his home in Canton, Mississippi. There he was hit by an automobile while walking near his home. Over the course of two years he made a good recovery but never got over his painful injuries. On Friday October 13, 1939, Henry Gabriel Hawkins died, leaving behind his niece (Stella Galloway, whom he had raised as his own), two brothers (G.L. Hawkins and Reverend I.F. Hawkins), and three sisters (Mrs. J.J. Golden, Mrs. W.B. Jones, and Mrs. S.L. Heidelberg).
