

Major Notes

Send it in: Millsaps Magazine would like you to know that its Major Notes policy has changed. The magazine is now printing only information sent in specifically for Major Notes. In the past, material was gleaned from newspaper clippings and other sources. The change was made to protect the privacy of alumni and to simplify the editing process. We would like to encourage all alumni to send in their news items, whether big or small, personal or professional, to Nell Floyd, Millsaps College, 1701 North State Street, Jackson, MS 39210-0001. Fax: 601-974-1456. Phone: 601-974-1089 or 1-86-MILLSAPS (1-866-455-7277). Email: communications@millsaps.edu. Please include your name, address, phone numbers, email address, graduation year and degree, and any news you want to share. Appropriate items include births, weddings, advanced degrees, awards, job promotions, etc. Photographs are also welcome. If you are aware of alumni who are not receiving the magazine, please send us their names and addresses.

1952

Mary Sue Best, B.A. 1952, of Indianapolis was included in the 2008 edition of CambridgeWho'sWho. The international registry, which is available online, in hardcover, and on CD-ROM, is a detailed compilation of the biographies of executives, professionals, and entrepreneurs in almost every industry and career field. The profiles highlight members' expertise, achievements, affiliations, and educations. Best was recognized for leadership in the communications field, specifically public speaking and writing. She is a freelance writer and is a member of the Colonial Williamsburg Burgesses. Membership is extended to friends of Colonial Williamsburg who make a significant financial contribution to the foundation. Each member is invited to an annual meeting of the Colonial Williamsburg Burgesses, which includes dinner, special entertainment, behind-the-scenes tours, and an up-to-date report on Colonial Williamsburg.

1958

Gerald E. Russell, B.S. 1958, of Leesville, La., received the 2008 Lifetime Achievement Award from the National Association of Social Workers-Louisiana Chapter on April 9, 2008 at its Annual Conference Awards Luncheon in Baton Rouge. The association annually chooses one recipient that has exemplified exceptional service and has made continual contributions to the field of social work through their lifetime.

1964

David L. Allen, 1964 of Bartlett, Tenn., received the David C. Bryant Outstanding Service Award from the American Association of Community Theatre at its national awards ceremony in June 2007

in Charlotte, N. C. The award recognizes members of the association for significant, valuable, and lasting service to community theatre. Allen is a festival commission representative for AACT and a member of its oral history and awards committees. He retired as business manager for Theatre Memphis in June 2002. For over 30 years, he served the theatre variously as an executive board member, actor, technical supporter, and volunteer. He also organized and improved the audition process for all Theatre Memphis productions. From 1985-1995, he served as state festival chair for the Tennessee Theatre Association (TTA) for six annual conventions. He was also the representative for Tennessee on TTA's Board of Directors from 1985-2001, as well as in 2007. In 1999, he managed the national AACTFest in Memphis. He served as vice chair and chair of the Southeastern Theatre's Conference Community Festival in 2001 and 2002. From 2000-03, he served as a judge of local college and university productions for Greater Memphis Theatre. Judges see all eligible productions in a season to determine nominees and winners for the annual Memphis Theatre Awards of Excellence. Since 2004, Allen has served as a community theatre judge for the Greater Memphis area. He also serves as an on-call advisor to Trenton Community Theatre, overseeing their efforts to build a performing arts center that will serve all arts in the three-county area. In his career, Allen has appeared in over 55 community theatre roles and countless productions as a writer, producer, director, stage manager, dresser, and set constructor. His wife, Sarah M. (McInnis) Allen, 1963, retired as director of counselors at West Memphis High School in West Memphis, Ark., in June 2006.

1966

Dr. John R. Harper, B.A. 1966, of Taylorsville was named in the 2008 edition of the "Guide to America's Top Family Doctors." As of July 1, Dr. Harper began his 38th year in family practice.

1969

James Anderson, B.A. 1969, of Jackson and a former Millsaps Player, is touring, "A Visit with James Hervey Boyd," a one-man show about the life and times of an early Jackson mayor whose family lived for more than 100 years in The Oaks, now the Oaks Museum. It is owned by the Mississippi Chapter of the Colonial Dames. The show is available for schools and churches statewide.

1970

Dr. J. Patrick (Pat) Barrett, B.A. 1970, of Jackson was installed as 2008-09 president of the Mississippi State Medical Association. Dr. Barrett is a diplomat of the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery. He is in private practice limited to surgery of the spine with Mississippi Spine Clinic, where he is the senior physician and has been a partner since 1979. He is on staff at River Oaks Hospital, Rankin Medical Center, and St. Dominic-Jackson Memorial Hospital where he has held the positions of chief of surgery service and chief of the medical staff. Dr. Barrett is a past president of the Mississippi Orthopedic Society and Central Medical Society. He has served as secretary, vice chair, and chair of the MSMA Board of Trustees; vice chair and chair of the Mississippi Medical Political Action Committee (MMPAC); a member of the Council on Public Information and member of the Board of Trustees for Mississippi Physicians Care Network. Dr. Barrett also served as a delegate to the American Medical Association meeting in Chicago, June 14-18.

1971

Laura Flett, B.A. 1971, of Shreveport La., is the author of Writing Toward the Light: A Mother's Grief Journey, published by Author House in February 2008. The nonfiction book is based on the journals she kept following the death of her only child, Carlton Harris, a freshman at Millsaps from 1994-95. Flett retired in May 2001 after 30 years as a public school teacher. She is a supervisor for students interning in northwest Louisiana public schools through the alternative education certification program at Louisiana State University in Shreveport. In fall 2008, she taught a community education class at the University. She has also taught journaling workshops at a local church and in an afterschool program in a low-income neighborhood. In August 2007, she presented an interactive art show, Heart Journey: haiga by laura, at All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church in Shreveport.

1977

Ruby M. Ethridge, B.A. 1977, of Albuquerque, N.M., was appointed associate superintendent of middle schools in the Albuquerque Public Schools District in July 2008. In her position, she works with the district's middle schools to improve achievement in mid-grade levels with the goal of increasing high school graduation rates.

Robert (Bob) C. King, B.A. 1977, of San Antonio, Texas, was appointed to a four-year term with the NCAA Division III

To find alumni online, log on to MyMillsaps.com

The Millsaps alumni online community makes it easy for alumni to stay in touch with classmates and their alma mater. Access to the online community is a password-protected benefit exclusively for Millsaps alumni. Registered users enjoy a number of services, including an online search for other alumni and permanent email forwarding, which allows alumni to receive email no matter how many times their addresses change. An online calendar alerts alumni to upcoming events on and off campus, enabling graduates to stay informed. Alumni can also report changes in their addresses and personal information. If you would like additional information or if you have questions or comments about the online community, please email us at alumni@millsaps.edu or call 1-86-MILLSAPS.

Championships Committee in March 2008. The nine-member committee supervises qualification and selection procedures for all Division III championships, as well as oversees administrative issues related to the events. King is the director of athletics at Trinity University in San Antonio, a position he has held since 1993. During his tenure, Trinity has twice finished fourth of 421 Division III schools in the prestigious Directors' Cup standings, which is based on NCAA post-season competition. The teams have also captured 11 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference President's Trophies as the best overall program in the conference. In addition, the Tigers have won four Division III national championships; in men's and women's tennis (2000), women's basketball (2003), and men's soccer (2003), as well as four individual titles. King has twice earned distinction as the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Athletic Director of the Year, most recently in the 2004-2005 season. Before his arrival in San Antonio in 1993, King was the director of athletics Millsaps College. During that time, the Majors won seven conference championships. In 1991, King was inducted into the Millsaps College Sports Hall of Fame.

1980

Ben Watts, B.B.A. 1980, of Columbia, who is credited with the John Wesley statue on the Millsaps campus, recently had a larger-than-life sized sculpture of the national championship coach Dobie Holden installed at Pearl River Community College's newly renovated football stadium in Poplarville. Watts also designed a nine-foot wingspan golden eagle for the alumni house at the University of Southern Mississippi. His other accomplishments include a life-size sculpture of NFL great Walter Payton, a sculpture of Sen. Howell Heflin of Alabama, and a ten-foot sculpture of the father of modern bow hunting Fred Bear. Bear is packing out a record set of caribou antlers that can be seen at Bass Pro Shop's original store in Springfield, Mo. The sculpture was commissioned by Bass Pro Shop's owner Johnny Morris and the Wonders of Wildlife Museum, which will house the National Archery Hall of Fame.

1981

Cory J. Ezelle, B.S. 1981, of Shreveport, La., was named vice president and exploration manager of Sklar Exploration Company LLC, in Shreveport in December 2007. Sklar is a privately-owned oil and gas exploration and production company with operations in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, and other states in the U.S. Ezelle has been with the company for over a decade. He is also the owner and manager of Ezelle Energy LLC, a privately-owned energy investment company.

1984

Tom D. Gober, M.B.A. 1984, of Pickwick Lake has been a forensic accountant and white-collar fraud expert/consultant for more than 18 years. For 13 of those years he assisted the United States Attorney's Office and the F.B.I. throughout the country in complex insurance and reinsurance criminal investigations, resulting in asset forfeitures used to replenish policyholder funds. Gober lectures on white-collar fraud investigative techniques. Gober has been published in fraud journals and has assisted reporters in investigative background work on major corporate and governmental scandals. Gober and his wife, Amy Jervis-Gober, recently moved back to Mississippi after Gober served as the forensic accounting expert on a $570 million criminal case in Richmond, Va. Gober is the president/owner of Thomas Gober Forensic Accounting Services and assists attorneys as an expert in insurance and healthcare fraud matters.

Dannis M. Mclin, B.A. 1984, and Debra A. Mclin-Brown, B.Ed. 1984, of Florence opened the Benson Educational Center Daycare and Tutorial Center in Florence on May 12. The center offers preschool, pre-kindergarten, and daycare services year-round. During the school year, the center provides after-school group tutorial sessions, standardized test preparation, test-taking skills, and homework assistance for students in grades pre-K–8. In the summer, the center offers enrichment and remediation classes and daycare services. Both sisters are pursuing doctorates in early childhood education at Jackson State University. Dannis teaches in the Hazlehurst City School System.

Suzannah B. Moorman, B.A. 1984, of Houston made her New York debut as the soloist in a performance of Mass in C Major, No. 1, “Wedding Mass,” by Timothy Michael Powell, at Carnegie Hall on June 14, 2008. Moorman is director of choral and vocal studies at Lee College in Baytown, Texas. A soprano, she specializes in German Lieder and French Mélodie. She has also produced three CDs of hymns and sacred music: Great Wesley Hymns (2003), Words of Life (2003), and Behold Him (2001).

Dr. Benjamin R. Wynne, B.B.A. 1984, and Dr. Carly Womack Wynne of Bethlehem, Ga., announce the birth of their daughter Lily on July 13 in Athens, Ga. Ben is assistant professor of history at Gainesville State College, and Carly is assistant professor of education at Gainesville State College.

1985

Dr. Vincent Craig Dungan, B.S. 1985, of Meridian was elected April 22 to the board of directors of Citizens Holding Company, parent company of The Citizens Bank. He also serves on the Board of Directors of Rush Medical Group and The Meridian Surgery Center.

1987

Michael K. Croal, B.S. 1987, of Wesley Chapel, N.C., is the senior director of Cornerstone Advisors Inc., based in Scottsdale, Ariz. The management consulting firm provides mid-size banks and credit unions with such services as strategic planning, technology assessments, system selections, benchmarking and best practices, and process improvement.

Marcus (Marc) G. Taylor, B.A. 1987, of Natchez is the clinical director of the Natchez office of Catholic Charities.

1989

Peter A. St. Arnold, B.S. 1989, of Memphis presented a session, “Identifying and Managing Institutional Conflicts of Interest,” at the fourth annual conference of the Association for the Accreditation of Human Research Protection Programs in Minneapolis on Feb. 25. In his session, St. Arnold identified institutional conflicts of interests, such as financial considerations, institutional reputation and prestige, and organizational relationships, which could affect the decisions made by research institutional officers. He also discussed ways to minimize, mitigate, and eliminate these potential conflicts to ensure the protection of research subjects. St. Arnold is the administrative officer and director of operations for research and development at the Memphis Veterans Administration Medical Center. He is responsible for overseeing a research and development service that is comprised of more than 70 investigators, nearly 200 employees, more than $18 million in total funding, and 220 active research protocols. He is also responsible for research regulatory oversight, fiscal management, personnel management, purchasing, and space management. As the medical center’s human subjects protection administrator, he is responsible for ensuring that all laws, regulations, policies, and procedures are observed so that volunteers participating in research are protected from harm.

1990

William Mark Mays, back row right, B.B.A. 1990, of Ridgeland was installed as president of the Mississippi Magnolia Chapter of the Society of Chartered Property Casualty Underwriters on June 24. Mark was sworn in by the regional governor of the international CPCU Society. CPCU is recognized as the premier designation in property-casualty insurance, and Mark earned his CPCU in 2002. Mark is currently the marketing manager for Evans & Associates Inc. in Ridgeland.

1992

Ashley Minton Wilson, B.A. 1992, and Geoff Wilson of Lindale, Texas, are the parents of Charles Augustus (Gus) Linwood, born Jan. 19, 2007. He has one sister, Sylvie. Ashley teaches ninth grade pre-Advanced Placement English and eleventh grade AP English at All Saints Episcopal School in Tyler, Texas. She is also director of the school’s Writing Center. In addition, she is a volunteer tutor with the Literacy Council in Tyler, a nonprofit organization that works in collaboration with Tyler Junior College, Tyler Independent School District, local churches, businesses, and libraries to provide services to adults to improve their literacy skills. Ashley teaches adult GED and beginning and advanced ESL classes. Geoff is a teacher at All Saints, as well as the head of the school's fine arts department.

I 993

Ronald G. Selby, M.B.A. 1993, of Leland is a senior sales representative with the international pharmaceutical company Sanofi-aventis.

I 994

Jack D. Clark III, B.B.A. 1994, of Chicago was recently promoted to senior energy acquisition analyst at Exelon Corporation. He completed an energy industry focused M.B.A. from Tulane University in 2004.

Reema Rafii, B.S. 1994, of Seattle is the health educator with the communications team of the Seattle & King County Public Health Department. Her job responsibilities include writing and editing public education materials for print and the Web, as well as responding to media inquiries. She is currently designing a public education campaign that will raise awareness about nutrition menu labels in King County chain restaurants. The campaign also aims to increase awareness of the relation between nutrition and chronic disease, as well as demonstrate how to use menu labels to make healthier food choices. In 2007, Rafii helped pass legislation that required some King County restaurants to publish nutrition menu labeling and banned the use of artificial trans fats in all King County restaurants.

I 995

Rod A. Risley, M.B.A. 1995, of Jackson was awarded the 2008 National Leadership Award from the American Association of Community Colleges during a joint session of the AACC Annual Convention and the Phi Theta Kappa International Convention in Philadelphia, Penn., on April 6. The award honors outstanding leadership at the national level and long-standing commitment to community colleges. Risley is the executive director of Phi Theta Kappa international honor society, headquartered in Jackson. The honor society is the largest in American higher education, with 1,250 chapters on two-year and community college campuses in the United States and abroad. Since its founding in 1918, more than two million students have been inducted. Risley was named executive director in 1985. During that time, he helped establish the All-USA Academic Team for Community Colleges, a program that recognizes community college students nationally for academic and leadership accomplishments. Winners are featured in USA TODAY and have been awarded more than $2 million in scholarships since the program began in 1990. Risley also helped conceive and launch Phi Theta Kappa's internationally acclaimed Leadership Development Studies Program, which is now offered in 400 colleges in 49 states, Canada, and Singapore, with more than 1,200 certified faculty. In 1999, the Kellogg Foundation selected the program as one of only seven exemplary leadership programs ever funded by the foundation. Each fall, Risley serves as moderator of the Phi Theta Kappa Satellite Seminar Series. Broadcasting live from Mississippi's Public Broadcasting Television Studios in Jackson, he hosts distinguished experts and scholars from around the world discussing Phi Theta Kappa's Honors Study Topic. In 2007, he successfully led efforts to establish the Phi Theta Kappa Foundation, a non profit organization to secure funding support for Society programs, operations and scholarships. He was also elected chair of the Mississippi Humanities Council, a Mississippi-based non-profit organization, which provides and supports statewide public programs based on the humanities. He currently serves on a taskforce for the Federation of State Humanities Councils, based in Washington, D.C., and the board of Mississippi's Center for Non Profit Organizations. He is a frequent commencement speaker and presenter at state and national education association meetings, as well as a writer on community college issues. He is pursuing a doctorate in Community College Leadership Program at Mississippi State University.

I 997

Amy (Lymberis) Mungur, B.A. 1997, of Durham, N.C., was awarded the degree of Master of Arts, East Asian Studies from Duke University after the successful completion and defense of her thesis, Engaging Technology: East Asian Pedagogy in the Digital Age. She has returned to China in August, where she is studying advanced Chinese language.

William B. (Ben) Skipper, B.A. 1997, and Jennifer Jones Skipper, B.A. 1999, of Madison are the parents of Jackson (Jack) Bienville, born Feb. 29, 2008. He has one brother, Will. Ben is an attorney with the Jackson office of Daniel Coker Horton & Bell P.A. Jennifer is an attorney with the Jackson office of Forman Perry Watkins Krutz & Tardy LLP.

I 998

Latanishia D. (Dees) Watters, B.A. 1998, of Birmingham was named a member of the Girls Inc. of Central Alabama Committee of 25, a junior board of directors, in June 2007. Created in 2001, the group of professionals and community leaders acts as advocates for girls and young women. The Committee of 25 also hosts two major events: Girls INCredible, a social and silent auction fundraiser, and the Giving Tree, a holiday outreach program. Girls Inc. of Central Alabama provides places and programs in which school-age girls of diverse racial and economic backgrounds can participate in activities that help them develop their fullest potentials, enrich their relationships with others, and take their places as responsible and productive members of the community. On Sept. 11, Watters was named as one of "Birmingham's Most Influential" in the second edition of "Who's Who In Black Birmingham," published this month by Briscoe Media Group LLC. The publication honors African-American business, civic, and professional leaders who have made their mark in the Birmingham community. Watters is an attorney with Haskell Slaughter Young & Rediker LLC, in Birmingham. She is also president of the Magic City Bar Association, chair of the Birmingham Bar Association Continuing Legal Education Committee, and a TIPS NOW Fellow in the Tort, Trial and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association for 2008-09. She serves as a member of the Board of Editors of The Alabama Lawyer, the magazine of the Alabama State Bar, and the American Cancer Society Board of Ambassadors. In 2006, she was elected to a two-year term on the Board of Editors of The Young Lawyer, a practice-oriented publication of the American Bar Association Young Lawyers Division. She serves as the publication's assistant editor.

1999

Mike Frascogna III, right, M.B.A. 1999, and brother Martin Frascogna, left, 2002, along with their father X.M. Frascogna Jr., recently completed the book Y'all vs. Us – Thrilling Tales of Mississippi's Hottest High School Football Rivalries. The new book follows last year's Mississippi football book, Gridiron Gold. Continuing to tap into Mississippi's rich high school football culture, the Frascognas' latest book explores the dynamics driving of 15 Mississippi's hottest high school football rivalries. Told from the various perspectives of current and former players, coaches, cheerleaders, and school administrators, together with insights from mayors, sports journalists, and fans connected to each of the teams, Y'all vs. Us will provide readers with a colorful backdrop for 15 of the big games in the Magnolia State.

Paul M. Holland, B.S. 1999, and Tracy Perry Holland, B.B.A. 1999, of Brookside, N.J. are the parents of daughter Paige Corpening Holland born on July 19. She has a brother, Michael, who is 2. Paul works for the Global Sales department at Dell Computers, and Tracy is a specialty rep for Takeda Pharmaceuticals.

Dr. William B. (Bart) Liles, B.A. 1999, and Dr. Leigh Traylor of Shreveport were married May 28, 2005, in New Orleans.

2000

Marin R. Dawson-Caswell, B.S. 2000, and Kyle A. Caswell of Metairie, La., announce the birth of their daughter, Kaylin Aubrey, on May 17, 2007. Marin is an assistant clinical professor in the department of family medicine at the LSU Family Medicine Clinic in Kenner. She is also the residency clinic preceptor for pediatrics. She completed her pediatric residency training at LSU Children's Hospital in June 2007. Kyle is a third-year orthopedic surgery resident at Tulane University in New Orleans.

Jason S. (Shane) Townsend, B.A. 2000, of Washington, D.C., is the co-author of the article "Minga: The Communal Work Tradition of Bolivia," published in the March–April 2008 edition of Native People's Magazine. He is also the photographer for the article, which explores the history and contemporary life of Bolivia's Chiquitano people and examines the cultural significance of the Chiquitano's communal work practice, minga.

2001

Elizabeth Grainger, B.A. 2001, of Phoenix participated in the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's Team in Training. The race was held August 31, 2008.

Anna K. Nelson, B.B.A., 2001, and Christopher (Chip) M. Cole of Pascagoula, Mississippi were married May 19, 2007 in Castries, St. Lucia. Serving as maid of honor in the British Virgin Islands was Kolie A. Wegner, B.B.A., 2002. Anna is a claims representative with the Social Security Administration in Moss Point. She received her master's degree in Business from the University of Alabama at Birmingham in 2004. Chip is a sauté chef at Preservation Grill in Pascagoula and is currently completing a bachelor's degree in political science.

Charles D. (Daniel) Redmond, B.A. 2001, of Winooski, Vt., is pursuing a second master's degree in English from the University of Vermont in Burlington. He is a teaching assistant for the University's introductory writing course for non-humanities majors, Written Expression. Redmond is also an instructor with Pearl River Community College in Poplarville. He teaches online philosophy courses, such as Introduction to Philosophy. In May 2005, he received a master's degree in philosophy from the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

2003

Kelly L. Adams, M.B.A. 2003, and Amanda F. Adams of Jackson announce the birth of their son, Evan Frazier, on March 3. Kelly and Amanda were married May 19, 2007, in Jackson. He works with Taylor Capital Management in Jackson as an account associate. She is an early interventionist with Blair E. Batson Children's Hospital.

2003

Lauren R. Dunagin, B.A. 2003, and Esteban Alvarez from San Isidro de El General, Costa Rica were married July 19, 2008. They live in San Isidro where she teaches English. Lauren received a master's degree in Spanish from Mississippi State University in Starkville in December 2006. She taught Spanish II and Spanish IV as a lecturer at the University in fall 2008.

Jacquelin (Jackie) A. (Adams) Hankins, B.A. 2003, and Ernest M. Hankins, of Newellton, La., are new parents.

Christopher K. Schiro, B.A. 2003, M.B.A. 2005, and Jennifer L. Wilson, B.S. 2003, of Mount Juliet, Tenn., were married Oct. 28, 2006, in Nashville. A certified public accountant, Christopher is the senior auditor for Gaylord Entertainment in Nashville. The company owns and operates Gaylord Hotels, the Grand Ole Opry and its broadcast home WSM-AM radio, and a number of other music-related entertainment and media holdings. Jennifer is a registered nurse working as a health coach with Gordian Health Solutions in Franklin. Gordian offers personalized one-on-one health coaching, individually tailored websites, and other media to help individuals achieve and maintain healthy lifestyles.

2004

Leslie Aldridge, B.A. 2004, of Vicksburg will be studying architecture in Prague in the Czech Republic this semester. She is a graduate student in the architecture program at North Carolina State University. Leslie served two years as a Volunteer-In-Service To America in Vermont.

Courtney A. Bergeron, B.B.A. 2004, and R. Alan Holcomb Jr. of Jackson were married June 17, 2006, in Jackson. She is an office manager with Dogwood Animal Hospital in Flowood. He is a service advisor with Gray Daniels Chevrolet in Jackson.

Jared W. Eastlack, B.A. 2004, of Tupelo joined the Tupelo office of the law firm Phelps Dunbar LLP as an associate attorney in August 2007. He received a J.D. with honors from the University Of Mississippi School Of Law in May 2007. From May 2006 to 2007, he served as executive articles editor of the Mississippi Law Journal.

2005

Tammy L. Ladner, B.S. 2005, of Vicksburg and George Threadgill III were married Aug. 18, 2007. She received her master's in computational engineering from Mississippi State University in Starkville in 2007. She works with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Vicksburg.

Scott Gerald Staines, B.A., 2004, and Lane Brienne Williamson, B.B.A., 2005, were married on May 17, at Franklin United Methodist Church in Laurel. Bridesmaids included McKenzie Followwill B.A. 2005 and M.B.A. 2006, Katie Fett Miller B.A. 2005, Emily Presswood B.A. 2005, Kelly Miller B.B.A. 2005, and Molly Allen Guitreau B.B.A. 2005. Groomsmen included K.K. Aldridge B.S. 2003 and Brandon Page B.A. 2003. After the honeymoon to Beverly Hills, Calif., Lane and Scott reside in Jackson where they are both first-year attorneys. Scott was third baseman for the Millsaps Majors baseball team for four years, and Lane was a member of Kappa Delta sorority.

2006

Dylan Chatterjee, B.B.A. 2006, of West Hollywood, Calif., is a management trainee with the feature post production department of Warner Bros. Pictures Inc. in Burbank. His job responsibilities include assisting the department's executives in coordinating, scheduling, budgeting, and contracting the films that the studio produces and distributes.

2007

Tyson J. Roy, B.B.A. 2007, of Jackson is a financial advisor with Sterne Agee Private Client Group in Ridgeland. Sterne Agee specializes in retail and institutional brokerage, investment banking and underwriting, secondary trading of corporate, municipal, and government securities, and market making in over-the-counter stocks. Roy focuses his practice on wealth management.