

Major Notes

Send It In: Millsaps Magazine would like you to know that its Major Notes policy has changed. The magazine is now printing only information sent in specifically for Major Notes. In the past, material was gleaned from newspaper clippings and other sources. The change was made to protect the privacy of alumni and to simplify the editing process. We would like to encourage all alumni to send in their news, whether big or small, personal or professional, to Tanya Newkirk, Major Notes Editor, Office of Alumni Relations, Millsaps College, 1701 North State Street, Jackson, MS 39210-0001. Or fax: 601-974-1088. Phone: 601-974-1038 or 1-866-MILLSAPS (1-866-455-7277), the alumni relations toll-free number. Email: alumni@millsaps.edu. Please include your name, address, phone numbers, email address, graduation year and degree, and any news you want to share. Appropriate items include births, weddings, advanced degrees, awards, job promotions, etc. Photographs are also welcome. If you are aware of alumni who are not receiving the magazine, please send us their names and addresses.

1956 REUNION CLASS

1963

Dr. Tom S. McHorse, B.S. 1963, of Austin, Texas, has been named the Travis County Medical Society's 2005 Physician of the Year. He has been described as a caring and exceptional physician who made strides in indigent care in the county through his efforts at the Volunteer Healthcare Clinic and Project Access. A gastroenterologist, McHorse has cared for patients since 1976 at the Austin Volunteer Health Clinic, where he has been the medical director for the past 12 years. He also helped create Project Access, a coordinated system of volunteer physician care, hospital care, diagnostic services, and medications assistance for low-income, uninsured people in Travis County. He was selected by county Medical Society members for the award based on criteria including knowledge, integrity, service to the community or the profession, humility, and compassion for patients and fellow workers. The society is a voluntary membership organization of more than 2,500 physicians serving Austin and surrounding counties since 1853.
