Interests

- European prehistory, specifically the Iron Age and earlier in Greece and Albania.
- Origins of complex societies, especially early states.
- Regional analysis and archaeological survey.
- Chemical and petrographic analysis of ceramics.

Grants and Awards

- winner of the 2010 “Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching Award” from the Archaeological Institute of America.
- as primary investigator, “Acquisition of laser ablation for ICP-MS and a handheld XRF for the W.M. Keck Center for Instrumental and Biochemical Comparative Archaeology, Millsaps College”, $384,535.00, National Science Foundation Major Research Instrumentation program (BCS-0922855). Beginning October 1, 2009.
- From the School for Advanced Research (through a grant from the National Science Foundation), funds to support a “Research Team Short Seminar” at the school’s campus in Santa Fe, NM in February, 2010. The seminar will bring together the Shala Valley Project’s eight principal investigators to discuss final publication of results.
- from the journal Internet Archaeology (through a grant from the Mellon Foundation), $6600.00 to support digital archiving (by the Archaeology Data Service, York, UK) of all data produced by the Shala Valley Project and to support production of an interactive, on-line journal article. February 1-April 30, 2009.
- Millsaps College 2007-2008 “Distinguished Professor Award”. $5000.00 prize given annually to the tenured member of the faculty who best “serves as an inspiring example of teacher, scholar, and mentor.”
- as co-primary investigator, a grant from the W. M. Keck Foundation in the amount of $818,200.00 ($400,000.00 from Keck, $418,200.00 institutional matching funds) to establish the W. M. Keck Center for Instrumental and Biochemical Comparative Archaeology. Beginning January, 2008.
- as primary investigator, a Senior Archaeology Research Grant from the National Science Foundation (BCS0713730) in the amount of $76,988.00, to fund the 2007 field season of the Shala Valley Project, an interdisciplinary regional studies project employing methods of archaeological, ethnohistoric, and ethnographic survey, focused on the tribal cultures of Northern Albania.
- as primary investigator, a Collaborative Research Grant (RZ50715) from the National Endowment for the Humanities in the amount of $34,117.00, to fund archival historical research for the Shala Valley Project.

- from the Committee on South East European Studies of the American Council of Learned Societies, a Travel Grant in the amount of $2500.00 to attend the Annual Meeting of the European Association of Archaeologists, September, 2007, Zadar, Croatia.
- grants in the amount of $2000.00 from the Millsaps College Faculty Development Committee to fund travel to Pylos, Greece in 2007 and 2008, Iklaina Archaeological Project.
- from the Associated Colleges of the South, $8500.00 to develop an interdisciplinary study abroad program in Albania. June, 2007.
- grants in the amount of $10,500.00 from Millsaps College and various private donors for the Shala Valley Project's 2006 and 2008 field seasons.
- grants in the amount of $20,000.00 from Millsaps College, the American Embassy in Tirana, and various private donors for the Shala Valley Project's 2005 field season.
- grant in the amount of $2571.00 from the International Visitor Program of the Center in Central Europe and Russia of the Global Partners Project used to bring Mr. Ols Lafa (Albanian Institute of Archaeology) to the United States in January, 2005.
- grants in the amount of $10,000.00 for travel to Tirana, Shkodra, and Shala, Albania, July 11-18, 2004, from the Central Europe/Russia Task Force of the Global Partners Project, the International Research and Exchange Board (IREX), the American Embassy in Tirana, and Millsaps College (Faculty Development Grant), in order to plan the Shala Valley Project.
- a Millsaps College Hearin Fellowship. $4000.00 for work on a review of petrography and clay sources in Mississippi, published in Time's River, E. Peacock and J. Rafferty, eds., University of Alabama Press. Summer, 2004.
- winner of the 2003 Millsaps College Outstanding Young Faculty Award, presented annually to the non-tenured faculty member who has contributed most significantly in the categories of teaching, research, and college service. $1000.00 and a one-semester leave from teaching (Spring, 2004).
- a Millsaps College Hearin Fellowship. $4000.00 for work on a review of European settlement pattern studies for the Journal of Archaeological Research. Summer, 2003.
- as co-primary investigator, $196,500.00 from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to construct a "Collaboratory for GIS and Mediterranean Archaeology" (CGMA). CGMA aims to establish a pan-Mediterranean Geographic Information System and will serve as a platform for instructing students in methods of archaeological regional analysis. Grant administered by primary investigators P. Foss and R. Schindler, DePauw University.
Internet: <http://acad.depauw.edu/~cgma/>.
- from the Central Europe/Russia Task Force of the Global Partners Project, a grant in the amount of $2400.00 for travel to northern Albania to begin work on a documentary film about the life and travels of Rose Wilder Lane, July 21-28, 2002.

2007-present. Consultant to the Iklaina Archaeological Project. Assisting M. Cosmopoulos (project director) in the petrographic and chemical analysis of Bronze Age ceramics and clays from the site of Iklaina and the surrounding region.

Internet: <http://www.iklaina.org/>.

1998-present. Consultant to the Körös Regional Archaeological Project. Assisting W. Parkinson (project director) in analysis of early Copper Age (Tisza-Polgar culture) ceramics from the Great Hungarian Plain, including petrographic analysis, and in analysis of the soil chemistry of the Vésztő-Bikeri early Copper Age site.

Internet: <http://www.anthro.fsu.edu/koros/>.

1998-2003. Fieldwork Director for the Mallakstra Regional Archaeological Project. Full-coverage, fully diachronic, intensive surface survey in the vicinity of the site of Apollonia, located in south-central Albania. Responsible for organizing field operations. Granted three year operating permit from the Albanian Academy of Sciences and the Institute of Archaeology, Tirana. Funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Louise Taft Semple Foundation of the University of Cincinnati, Millsaps College, the National Geographic Society, and the Institute for Aegean Prehistory. MRAP was featured in the April, 2000 (Vol. 197, No. 4) issue of National Geographic magazine in the Geographica section.

Internet: <http://river.blg.uc.edu/mrap/MRAP.html>.

2000-2005. Co-director (with W. Lee) of the Loudoun Valley Historical Archaeology and Ecology Project (LVHAEP). Archaeological research on the property of the Blue Ridge Center for Environmental Stewardship, Loudoun County, Virginia. Archaeological survey of c. 1000 acres in the Blue Ridge mountains, at the confluence of the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers, near Harpers Ferry, WV. Test excavation of an Antebellum farmstead. 2001-2003 and 2005, site of the Millsaps College/University of Louisville Archaeological and Historical Field School.

Internet: <http://BlueRidgeCenter.org/index.html>.

July, 1998-May, 1999. Senior Research Associate, Cobb Institute of Archaeology, Mississippi State University. Interaction with Junior and Senior Research Associates, participation in the meetings and deliberations of the Cobb Institute.

Summers 1993, 1994, 1995. Pylos Regional Archaeological Project. Participation in regional-scale survey of Messenia, Greece. Included extensive mapping work with a Sokkia total station. Internet: <http://classics.lsa.umich.edu/PRAP/html/PRAP.html>.

August, 1994-December, 1996. Paid appointment to the Department of Classics as project assistant to Dr. John Bennet, University of Wisconsin, Madison. Use of various information management systems for control and manipulation of regional survey data.

January-May, 1991. Paid research assistant to Dr. Jon Andelson, Grinnell College. Demographic analysis of Amana Colony family structures.

January-May, 1991. Research assistant to Dr. Kathryn Kamp, Grinnell College. Classification and computer cataloging of Sinagua clay figurines. Unpaid position.

Summer, 1989. Grinnell College Archaeological Field School. Flagstaff, Arizona. Six-week excavation of a five-room Sinagua pueblo and participation in on-going survey of the Coconino National Forest.

Fall semester, 1989. Grinnell College study program in London and Greece. Included extensive travel throughout Britain and Greece, with visits to major archaeological sites in both countries.
